PAT. O'MALLEY. A LECTURE TO YOUNG MEN

On the Loss of

MANHOOD

A Lecture of Seminal Weakness, or Spermatorrhea, induced by Seif-Abuse. Involuntary Emissions, Impotency, Nervous Debility, and impediments to Marriage generally; Consumption, Epilepsy and Fits; Mentai and Physical Incapacity, &c.-By ROBERT J. GULVERWELL, M. D.

The world renowned author, in this admirable Lecture, clearly proves from his own experience that the awful consequences of Self-Abuse may be effectually removed without dangerous surgical operations, bougles, instruments, rings or cordials; pointing out a mode of cure at once certain and effectual, by which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself cheaply, privately and radically. Acusands.

There are many discouragements to the man who resolves to make his life an instrument of good in the world, and an agency for bringing about a clearer perception of Christian duty, and for bringing the souls of men nearer to God. The world is given to ridiculing his work, and often those who ought to be his warmest supporters will attempt to discredit his motives and retard or defeat his work. Against all such adverse influences he must battle with the courage of a hero. There comes times when he must strike strong blows in self-defense, and in defense of the cause for which the facts.
